

Client Direct Debit Request Service Agreement Terms

Effective: May 2016

This agreement contains the conditions of use for your Direct Debit Request. You should read these conditions of use carefully to fully understand your rights and obligations. If you have any questions about the following, please contact us.

1. Direct debit details

The Direct Debit Request form details the terms of your debit arrangement including, among other things, the amount, the frequency, the expiry date (if any) and the recipient of the funds. You should carefully read the Direct Debit Request form to familiarise yourself with the details of your requested direct debit.

The first direct debit will occur on the agreed commencement date, which must be at least 5 business days after your request is received. If one of our loan repayment options is selected then the first direct debit will not commence until the month after the loan is advanced or the commencing date, whichever is the later.

Confirmation of each direct debit will appear on your regular account statements or in the case of passbook accounts, when you next update your passbook.

2. Accounts

We advise you that:

- direct debiting through the Bulk Electronic System (BECS) may not be available on all accounts;
- to check your account details against a recent statement from your Financial Institution; and
- if you are uncertain about any matters referred to in (a) and (b) above to check with your Financial Institution before completing the Direct Debit Request.

3. Time of direct debit

Direct debits can be effected at any time on the nominated day and you must ensure that there are sufficient available funds in your account to effect the direct debit. The Financial Institution in its absolute discretion may determine the order of priority of payment by it of any moneys held in the nominated account.

Where the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday or where there is no such date in the current month (for example 29th, 30th or the 31st), then the direct debit may be made on the first working day before the nominated day. If you are uncertain as to when a direct debit will be processed on your account, you should make an enquiry directly to your Financial Institution.

4. Frequency options

Direct debits can be effected:

Weekly – The direct debit is made on the same day you nominate of each week.

Fortnightly – The direct debit is made on the same day you nominate of each alternate week.

Monthly – The direct debit is made on the same day you nominate of each month. If one of our loan repayment options is selected in conjunction with a weekly or fortnightly frequency then the direct debit amount will be calculated by dividing the monthly repayment (plus any additional amount requested) by 4 for weekly or 2 for fortnightly. This means that throughout the year additional payments will be made due to the cumulative effect of additional days within some months.

5. Alteration or cancellation

You may cancel or request a change to the amount or frequency of the direct debit by giving written notice to us advising of your altered requirements no less than 5 business days prior to the nominated due date. We will not change the amount or frequency of your direct debit without your prior written approval.

6. Direct Debit Request fee

A Direct Debit Request fee may apply each time we attempt to debit another Financial Institution at your request. Whether that fee will apply, and if so then its amount, is indicated in your account terms and conditions (to which the Direct Debit Request relates). The fee (if payable) is added to the transfer amount you nominate.

7. Dishonour fees

It is your responsibility to ensure that there are sufficient available funds in the nominated account to meet the direct debit on the due date.

Should sufficient funds not be available to effect the total direct debit, then we are authorised to direct debit an amount up to the available balance in the nominated account at that time. We are under no obligation to effect a reduced direct debit.

If a direct debit is not effected due to insufficient funds or where we choose to effect a reduced direct debit then a dishonour fee may apply. The amount of the dishonour fee is detailed in your account terms and conditions.

8. Our liability

Although we will endeavour to effect your request, we accept no responsibility for failing to effect the direct debit and accordingly, we shall not incur any liability through omission or refusal to complete the direct debit.

However, we reserve the right to cancel your Direct Debit Request (although we are under no obligation to do so), without notice if:

- direct debits are continually returned unpaid by your nominated Financial Institution; or
- it authorises a direct debit to your loan account with us and you request a payout figure on your loan account.

It is your responsibility to arrange a suitable alternate method of payment should the Direct Debit Request be cancelled.

9. Privacy

We will keep all information provided by you and details of your nominated accounts private and confidential except to the extent that you impliedly or expressly consent to those details being disclosed or the law requires otherwise. You consent to us using or releasing your account information:

- a. to investigate with you and your Financial Institution any possible incorrect debits, and
- b. to any of our related entities unless you tell us otherwise.

We will take reasonable steps to protect your personal information held by us against loss and against access, use, modification or disclosure that is unauthorised.

10. Dispute resolution

All transaction disputes, queries and claims should firstly be raised directly with us. We will investigate and deal promptly with any queries, claims or complaints regarding debits, providing a verbal or written response within 21 days from the date of the notice. If the claim/dispute is successful we will reimburse you by way of cheque or electronic credit to your nominated account.
