

Banking App Terms and End User Licence Agreement for Apple Devices

Licensed Application END USER LICENCE AGREEMENT

This Licence Agreement between you and Newcastle Permanent Building Society Limited (ACN 087 651 992) as licensor (Application Provider) governs the use of the Newcastle Permanent Building Society Banking Application (Licensed Application) on your Apple iPhone Device (iPhone).

You can download and install the Licensed Application from the App Store to your iPhone. Together with the terms and conditions applicable to your accounts (Terms and Conditions), this End User Licence Agreement (EULA) forms a legal contract between you, as the account owner and the Application Provider in relation to your use of the Licensed Application. To the extent of any inconsistency between the Terms and Conditions and this EULA, the Terms and Conditions prevail.

The Application Provider reserves all rights not expressly granted to you. For the avoidance of doubt you acknowledge that this licence is entered into between you and the Application Provider only, and not with Apple Inc. (Apple).

It is important that you read and understand this EULA before downloading the Licensed Application as, by downloading the Licensed Application from the App Store, you are accepting the terms of this EULA and any amendments to them notified to you, including electronically via the App Store or iPhone, or via the Application Provider's website.

The Licensed Application is only available for use by individuals over the age of 16.

a. Scope of Licence

This licence granted to you for the Licensed Application by the Application Provider is limited to a non-transferable licence to use the Licensed Application on any iPhone that you own or control and as permitted by the Usage Rules set forth under the heading 'Services and Content Usage Rules' of the Apple Media Services Terms and Conditions (Usage Rules). This licence does not allow you to use the Licensed Application on any iPhone that you do not own or control, and you may not distribute or make the Licensed Application available over a network where it could be used by multiple devices at the same time. You may not rent, lease, lend, sell, redistribute or sublicense the Licensed Application. You may not copy (except as expressly permitted by this licence and the Usage Rules), decompile, reverse engineer, disassemble, attempt to derive the source code of, modify, or create derivative works of the Licensed Application, any Updates or part thereof (except as and only to the extent as may be permitted by applicable law or to the extent as may be permitted by the licensing terms governing use of any open sources components included with the Licensed Application). In addition, you agree that you will not override the software lockdown on your iPhone (commonly referred to as 'jailbreaking' your iPhone). Any attempt to do so is a violation of the rights of the Application Provider and its licensors. If you breach this restriction, you may be subject to prosecution and damages.

The terms of this EULA will govern any updates, upgrades, patches, bug fixes, new releases or new versions (Updates) provided by the Application Provider that replace and/or supplement the original Licensed Application, unless such Updates are accompanied by a separate licence in which case the terms of that licence will govern. You are solely responsible for ensuring that any Updates provided by the Application Provider are installed on your iPhone.

b. Consent to Use of Data

The Application Provider may collect your personal information in connection with your use of the Licensed Application, including but not limited to your identifying information like your name and contact information and information you tell us about yourself when interacting with us, for example by sending us an enquiry. You agree that the Application Provider may also collect and use technical data and related information, including but not limited to technical information about your device, system and application software, and peripherals, to facilitate the provision of Updates, product support and other services to you (if any) related to the Licensed Application, to improve the Application Provider's products and services and to develop new products, services and technologies. We will use your personal information in accordance with the NPBS Privacy Policy, available here newcastlepermanent.com.au/privacy-policy. You acknowledge that you have read and agreed to the NPBS Privacy Policy. For more information about data use and privacy, please see the NPBS Privacy Policy.

d. Suspension or Termination of use and service quality

The licence is effective until terminated by you or the Application Provider. The Application Provider may suspend or terminate your licence to use the Licensed Application at any time. Your rights under this licence will terminate automatically without notice from the Application Provider if you fail to comply with any term(s) of this licence. Upon termination of the licence, you shall cease all use of the Licensed Application, and destroy all copies, full or partial, of the Licensed Application.

The provision and subsequent use of the Licensed Application are subject to the reliability and availability of third party service providers including software providers and network service providers. The Application Provider does not warrant against interference with your enjoyment of the Licensed Application, that the functions contained in, or Services performed or provided by, the Licensed Application or Services will be uninterrupted or error-free, or that defects in the Licensed Application or Services will be corrected. No oral or written information or advice given by the Application Provider or its authorised representative shall create a warranty. Some jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion of implied warranties or limitations on applicable statutory rights of a consumer, so the above exclusion and limitations may not apply to you.

i. Warranty Claims

To the extent not disclaimed by paragraph h, the Application Provider is solely responsible for any product warranties.

In the event of any failure of the iPhone to conform to any applicable warranty, you may notify Apple and Apple may refund the purchase price for the iPhone to you.

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Apple will have no other warranty obligations whatsoever with respect to the Licensed Application, any other claims, losses, liabilities, damages, costs or expenses attributable to any failure to conform to any warranty will, subject to this paragraph i, be the Application Provider's responsibility.

j. Limitation of Liability

Where the liability of the Application Provider for breach of a Consumer Guarantee cannot be excluded, to the maximum extent allowed by law and at the Application Provider's option, its liability for such breach is limited to the resupply of the Licensed Application or the Services or payment of the cost of having the Licensed Application or the Services resupplied to you. To the extent not prohibited by law, and subject to your rights under any Consumer Guarantee, in no event shall the Application Provider be liable for personal injury, or incidental, special, indirect or consequential damages whatsoever, including, without limitations, damages for loss of profits, loss of data, business interruption or any other commercial damages or losses, arising out of or related to your use or inability to use the Licensed Application however caused, regardless of the theory of liability (contract, tort or otherwise) and even if the Application Provider has been advised of the possibility of such damages. Some jurisdictions do not allow the limitation of liability for personal injury, or of incidental or consequential damages, so this limitation may not apply to you.

To the extent permitted at law, and subject to your rights under any Consumer Guarantee, in no event shall the Application Provider's total liability to you for all damages (other than as may be required by applicable law) exceed the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00). The foregoing limitations will apply even if the above stated remedy fails of its essential purpose.

You acknowledge that Services may contain proprietary content, information and material that is protected by applicable intellectual property laws, including but not limited to patents, designs, copyright, trade-marks or circuit layout rights and any right to apply for the registration or grant of any of the above (Intellectual Property).

Subject to the grant of licence under paragraph a, you acknowledge that nothing in this EULA grants you any ownership of or rights in respect of the Intellectual Property in the Licensed Application, and you agree that you will not use the Licensed Application or Services in any way that breaches these Intellectual Property protections.

You acknowledge that, in the event of any third party claim that the Licensed Application or your possession and the use of the Licensed Application infringes a third party's Intellectual Property rights, the Application Provider, not Apple, will be solely responsible for the investigation, defence, settlement and discharge of any such intellectual property infringement claim.

The Application Provider may assign, novate or otherwise deal with any rights under this EULA at any time effective immediately upon notifying you of the assignment or novation.

If any provision of this EULA is void, voidable by a party, unenforceable, invalid or illegal and would not be so if a word or words were omitted, then that word or those words are to be severed and if this cannot be done, the entire provision is to be severed without affecting the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this EULA.
