

Facts for Personal Loans (including Car Loans)

Fees and Charges

Effective: 6 June 2024

Getting started

Below is an explanation of fees and charges which you may be asked to pay during the course of obtaining your loan.

Application Fee

Establishing a loan is an involved process and requires the expertise of trained staff to assess the loan application, create detailed documentation, coordinate loan funding and organise any security against the loan (if applicable). For this reason, an application fee is payable upon advance of your loan.

What will the cost be?
Application fee	$250 Waived for Premium Plus Package holders

Depending on the method of loan funding, additional fees may apply, see Other fees and charges that may apply.

During the course of your loan

Ongoing Account Keeping Fees

What will the cost be?
Administration fee	Nil

Document Fee

If you ask us to provide a copy of any statement or document we will charge you a fee.

What will the cost be?
Per document	$10

Substitution or Variation Fees

Where we agree to vary the security we hold for a loan, or vary the loan amount, a fee will apply.

What will the cost be?
Substitution of Security Fee	$75
Variation Request Fee	$75

Default Administration Fee

This fee only applies if you fall behind in your loan repayments or you do not make your full required monthly repayment.

You can avoid incurring this fee by:

- keeping your loan in advance
- making your loan repayment on time

What will the cost be?
Where one payment or less is in arrears	$35 at the end of each relevant month
Where more than one payment is in arrears	$50 at the end of each relevant month

Dishonour Fee

If you ask us to take a payment, either via direct debit or salary deduction or your cheque payment is dishonoured (e.g. due to insufficient funds), you will be charged a fee.

What will the cost be?
Per dishonour	$9

Repaying your loan

There is no early repayment fee or restriction on any additional repayments.
